

MAXX 8Z

Maximalist Tactical Boot

As the newly created Maximalist footwear category continues to thrive, Tactical Research by Belleville introduces the new MAXX Series of ultra-cushioned tactical boots. Designed with a unique performance FATT MAXX™ midsole that features higher volume, softer density, and greater rebounding foam than standard tactical boots, the MAXX Series of boots allow for the foot to sink deeply into the midsole for greater support, stability, uniformity of stride and overall comfort.
